COMMODORE'S CORNER

I hope all our sailors had a wonderful Thanksgiving as I certainly did, and are finding lots of opportunities to get on the water!

Our sailing association ended the year with a near record 86 club members! Our newest member is Bill Phillips who races his Beneteau 31 (Joie de Vivre) on the North Shore. Welcome aboard Bill! Bill has already participated in several of our races.

This year the Corinthian's were very well represented in the three-day LPRC regatta with 13 boats participating, the most ever for us! Of the 9 boats in the non-spinnaker class 7 represented the CSA and captured all three top places; Good Stuff II (1st), Knot Normal Too (2nd), and Aqua Mystic (3rd). Congratulations to these and all the club LPRC racers!

On the North Shore the Fall Series was sailed jointly with PYC and the results are posted on page 7. Special thanks to PYC for providing a committee boat & PRO (Lloyd Causey) for these races. Our year-end General Membership Meeting was held on November 9 and our members elected the club's officers for 2017. They are:

Commodore: Gerald Kuehler

Vice Commodore: Dieter Hugel

Rear Commodore: Louise Bienvenu

Treasurer: Debbie David

Secretary: Mike Floberg

Members at Large: Albert Bacque, Skipper Chenault, Don Levy & John David

We had a wonderful group of officers this past year and I am looking forward to another great year with the new Board!

Just a reminder that 2017 is around the corner and our membership dues ($125 for general members & $50 for associate members) are coming due in January. Please send your checks to:

Corinthian Sailing Association
141 Robert E Lee Blvd, # 259
New Orleans, La 70124

Also, don't forget that we'll have our "Corinthian Birthday Party" on January 21st at 6pm at NOYC. Food will be provided and the Shriner Band will play. Check out the details on our website, www.corinthians.org, and purchase your tickets in advance if you can ($25) to help us plan for the food, etc. This is a great party and we typically have around 90 people in attendance! It's open to all members and their guests.....

Wishing everyone a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Gerald
